Bulldogs Raise Money for Children's Miracle Network Hospitals

New Book, Ten Little Bulldogs, to Benefit Children's Hospitals

Gilbert, Arizona – Sortis Publishing announces the release of a new children's book benefiting Children's Miracle Network Hospitals®, a charity that raises funds for 170 children's hospitals. Ten Little Bulldogs by Renay Daniels will feature Children's Miracle Network Hospitals' highly recognized Miracle Balloon logo.

The purpose of Ten Little Bulldogs is to teach young readers how to count using the lovable Bulldog as the center of attention. The book also gives a brief history of Children's Miracle Network Hospitals and what the charity has accomplished since its founding in 1983.

Fifty-cents from the sale of each copy of Ten Little Bulldogs will go to Children's Miracle Network Hospitals to support research and education, purchase equipment, and pay for uncompensated care for countless children.

"Ten Little Bulldogs is a fun book that kids and adults of all ages love. The pictures and captions that bring home a great message of fun, caring and connecting with a charitable cause, plus it helps raise money for Children's Miracle Network Hospitals.."

Brian Hazelgren Chief Business Development Officer-Children's Miracle Network Hospitals

"We are very excited about Ten Little Bulldogs and are extremely pleased to be working with this fantastic charity to help raise funds for children's medical needs."

Mike Webb Owner-Sortis Publishing
